NEXT MEETING

SPEKE HALL

by
Mr ROY BOARDMAN

Mr Boardman is Custodian and, working for the National Trust, he came to Speke in rather a hurry to take over when the County Council ceased to exist. Prior to this he had been at Dunham Massey in Cheshire for a number of years. He is going to tell us about the unusual aspects of Speke Hall the visitors do not see on their guided tours.

Wednesday 26th NOVEMBER 1986 at 8.00pm

Gateacre Chapel Hall, Sandfield Road
Visitors welcome 25p
Tea & biscuits 10p

The new Editor craves your indulgence in the matter of timing of the actual Newsletter as against the advertising of events. Due to other commitments the first Newsletter will hopefully be issued in the early part of the New Year.

REQUEST - Any articles, comments, information about local events, will be gratefully received. Final date for receipt of these for the next issue - Saturday 10th January 1987. Thank you. DMR

STOP-PRESS: Soon - new bright yellow litter bins of our choice to be placed round the village. SL
