MY LIFE AT SPEKE HALL

Mr Tom Watmore

We are very fortunate to be having Mr Tom Watmore to give us a talk (with slides) about his life at Speke Hall. He lived at the Hall for twenty years, his father being Miss Watt's butler. When Miss Watts died, Mr Watmore, Senior, stayed on as caretaker.

This should be a most interesting talk - from the "inside". Those of us who were lucky enough to hear Mr Roy Boardman last November will remember his fascinating talk on another aspect of Speke Hall. He showed what the National Trust were doing, and gave us an insight from a different angle.

Mr Watmore's talk, from personal memories, should be another fascinating one.

Venue -
Gateacre Institute, Grange Lane. Visitors welcome 25p

Mrs Cohen, who does such a wonderful job in arranging all our interesting meetings, has now informed us of dates to the end of the year. Perhaps you would like to enter them in your diary.
