THE QUEEN'S PICTURES

by

ANNE MACPHEE B. A.

Lecturer in Art and the History of Art in the Department of Continuing Education, University of Liverpool.

This is a unique collection formed by rulers of Britain from the Tudors to the present day which reflects both discernment and prejudice. The result of Royal patronage in Britain reveals that the worst and most extravagant Kings had the best taste !

TUESDAY, 25th APRIL 1989 at 8 p.m.

at The Gateacre Institute, Grange Lane, Gateacre.

Visitors welcome.

GATEACRE GRANGE -

We were concerned with two planning applications here - one to demolish part of the sandstone wall in Grange Weint, included in the Gateacre Village Conservation Area, and build 6 houses within the grounds of Gateacre Grange and two to build 2 bungalows behind, and in the garden of 21 Grange Weint. After a site visit on the 6th April the City Planning Officer refused both these applications, but the applicant has now put in an appeal to the Department of the Environment. We shall be writing to the Inspector putting forward the Society's views and we urge all members and others affected by these proposals to do the same.

NEW APPLICATIONS -

89P/268 Halewood House, Halewood Rd. demolition of existing house & erect 1 house & pair of 'Granny' bungalows.

89P/269 " " " " to erect 1 detached house.

We feel this is over-development and have written to the C.P.O.

89P/435 7 Stone Cottages, Belle Vale Rd. erect 2-storey exten. at rear.

89P/567 Gateacre Hall Hotel. to erect 2-storey extension.

We cannot comment on this last proposal until we have seen the plans.
